CHARACTER STORY

Celia Ward is a neighborhood-famous medium, fraud-breaker, and bereavement fixer who has spent years moving between grieving families, undertakers, church women, alley operators, and shameless seance swindlers. She is not the grand authority in a velvet salon. She is the woman you call when the dead in the flat will not keep quiet, when a grieving widow has been robbed twice, or when a table-rapping prophet needs to be exposed in public. Her gift is not clean or broad. The dead crowd her, recent tragedies cling to rooms around her, and what she gets is emotional, fragmentary, and often aggravatingly human.
